PROJEKTTITEL

Austria-Hungary and International Law in the First World War

PROJEKTbeschreibung

In my research on international law in the First World War, I have discovered interesting differences in the views of the allies Britain and France, but even more profound differences between the Allies and Imperial Germany. I have also found indication of disagreements between Austria-Hungary and Germany on important issues of law. I shall use my stay in Vienna to explore those differences in the Haus-, Hof- und Staatsarchiv regarding some salient issues of war conduct in order to understand better the legal views of the monarchy and how they compared to those of its ally, Germany.
